Believing that every group is capable of greatness, Deborah Pruitt, Ph.D. delivers practical and profound strategies for converting the untapped capabilities in groups into extraordinary results. With her innovative Formula for Group Alchemy®, she guides leaders and groups to create powerful collaborative cultures that increase productivity and build more enriching ways of working together.

Participants in Group Alchemy programs describe life-changing experiences and sea-changes in their organizations. They gain momentum as they resolve old barriers to excellence and create a whole new vision for their work together. Clients praise Deborah's distinctive combination of intellect, warmth and humor as well as her knack for translating cutting edge research into practical steps for breakthroughs in accomplishments.

Dr. Pruitt draws from thirty years of cross-cultural research, twenty years of organizational effectiveness consulting, and an early career in sales and administrative management. She earned her doctorate degree in anthropology from the University of California at Berkeley. She is the author of Group Alchemy: This Six Elements of Highly Successful Collaboration.
