Game-Changing Leadership: How to Create a Collaborative Culture, Unlock the Power of Your Group and Achieve Big Impact

Old command-and-control ideas of leadership are not sufficient today. Current demands on performance and the emphasis on collaboration across coalitions, networks, cross-functional teams, self-managed and virtual teams calls for a new kind of leadership. Learn a cultural approach to leadership that reliably draws out the hidden capacity in your organization. Establish this visionary structure of effective practices in your group and expand your impact dramatically. You will stand above the crowd and be sought after.

You will be able to:

- Lead with a vision and build shared ownership for results.
- Fend off cynicism and sustain enthusiasm and full engagement.
- Maintain open communication, cohesion and cooperation.
- Develop your authentic leadership style to maximize the creative alchemy in your group.
